Teaching Free Enterprise Workshop for High-School Teachers

Saturday, October 17, 2020, Virtual Sessions via Zoom

Please accept our invitation to participate in our brand-new Teaching Free Enterprise Workshop for High-School teachers presented by the Center for the Study of Economics and Liberty at Mercer University (CSEL) and the University of West Georgia's Center for Economic Education and Financial Literacy (CEEFL).

This free workshop will provide lesson plans, activities, and exercises that can be easily implemented into your own high school classroom. You'll hear from expert professors and researchers on four of the most important, yet often misunderstood, economic concepts:

- International Development
- The Morality of Markets
- Markets and Government
- Sports Economics

Since your time is extremely valuable, we've designed a fast-paced, informative program that:

- Focuses on real world issues and delivers classroom-ready instruction.
- Includes lesson plans connected to the Georgia Standards of Excellence (GSE).
- Includes free books and materials mailed to you at the conclusion of the program.
- Earn $25 in Amazon e-gift cards and a Continuing Education Certificate for each module once you register, attend, and complete the exit survey.

Space is limited, please register today to save your spot!
